TO THE AMERICANS

Sorber not only a cure, but pronounced in all stages of secret Diseases—soft sores, nervous debility, syphilis in all its stages, stricture, plots, gravel, diabetes, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, mercurial rheumatism, scrofula, pain in the head and other diseases of the head, through nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, cancers, dropsy, epileptic fits, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, as well as nervous debility, loss of memory, loss of power, general weakness, dimness of vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, walseness, dyspepsia, liver disease, cramp, spasm, convulsions, etc., all diseases of the heart, irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or refractory it is believed, how far it has progressed, nor whether the sufferer can be affected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all the means of cure. The following remedies are pleasant, quiet, odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States, and California, I have treated from the jaws of death many thousands, who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to effect a permanent cure in all cases under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies in health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and are passed on to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but increase it, and introduce the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim be saved, the curse is still upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which terrifies itself in scrofula, tertian, pleuric, erysipelas, etc., and other diseases. At the same time, the soul and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Mercury is another formidable enemy to health, for mercury in the dried catalogue of human diseases causes a degradative a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely death. It does not only the system rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, qualifies for the terrible disease of consumption, all of which happens, and leaves the sufferer wracked in body and mind, predisposes to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the further knowledge that mercury cannot eradicate vice, and above that permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of rimous practices, my patients can be restored to robust vigorous health.

Dr. L. J. Czaplakay, San Francisco, California, treats all diseases of males and females, treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by the fact of the most remarkable cures, and the largest number of patients, in any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territories, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. All business correctly done, strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco, California, Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mall Steamship Co.'s office, San Francisco.

REMARKABLE INSTANCE OF MEDICAL RELIEF.

Below we publish the certificate of one of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered his former health, and having obtained full information concerning the case and remedial agents, and his statement is authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command its publicity, and we commend its perusal to the public, and to all afflicted.

Creditors.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be under similar enough to be similarly affected, where a permanent cure of their disease can be obtained, feels it his duty to thank Dr. L. J. Czaplakay, for his prompt recovery of his health, and for the advice he gave me, in his statement to the virtues of uncontrolled passion in youth; depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily routine of life. I am the man, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances, mention of their treatment, I found my malady increased, and my symptoms became more alarming in their torments, and being told by one that my disease, being principally confined to the brain, medicine would not avail, I was cast down, and my mind, like a dead leaf, lost in the gloom of despair, remaining my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czaplakay, who, after examining my case, prescribed a medicine, which while it did not immediately relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by this result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and in a short time, thanks to all his skill and advice, my head became clear, and my ideas collected, and constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body, the highest degree of debility, the misanthropy and forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others; the incapability to stand a want of resolution, the tremor, etc., etc., and all that pleasurable disease in mind, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact, in two months after having consulted the Doctor, I feel as if inspired by a new spirit, which but a short time ago, I was condemned to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snare of inexperienced quacks, I deem it my duty to offer to all who are afflicted, and still under the same recommendation to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that once under his radical and permanent cure, there is nothing

Dasselbe Blatt enthält auch Berichte über die Art und Weise, wie die Schiller-Feier in den Städten Stockton und Marysville von den Deutschen begangen wurde.

The Schiller Festival.

At twelve o'clock on Sunday, all the different Associations which had signified their intention to join in the celebration of the Centennial Anniversary of the birthday of Friedrich Von Schiller, met at their respective rooms and formed for the parade. The Grand Marshal appointed for the occasion was Dr. Charles Precht, and the names of the Assistants were as follows: F. Mayrisch, Stadtfeil, Sack, R. Mayrisch and A. Bauer. Besides these Assistant Marshals there were three gentlemen selected as a body guard, in German colors, to the triumphal car containing the bust of Schiller. These gentlemen were Dr. Wedekind, Wm. Huefner and Mr. Buechel. At half-past twelve o'clock the First Division formed on the north side of California street, in front of Turner's Hall, and the Second Division took its place opposite, and in a few moments the procession started. After passing through the principal streets the column marched to Russ' Garden. On the arrival at this last named place the body guard escorted the young ladies who were on the car, to a seat on the platform in the saloon. The Fusiliers next opened their ranks and received the First Division, the band at the same time playing "Hail Columbia." Next came the "German Sharpshooters" and received the Second Division in the same style. When all were in the Hall, the procession was dismissed, and the flags of the different Singing Associations and Military Companies were beautifully arranged in front and on either side of the stage, the bust of Schiller (sculptured by Mr. Charles Ostner), occupying the centre of the platform. In the rear of the bust was placed the new flag of Wurtemberg, which had been prepared for the occasion by Mr. Hirsch, the present acting Consul (during the absence of Mr. Fred. Franck). On one side of the bust was Mr. Charles Ruehl, the orator of the day, and on the other was Mr. Hirsch. Around them were the Consuls of the other German States and the Marshals of the day. All being seated and quiet, the California Brass Band, under the direction of Mr. Kraus, performed an overture from Lucretia Borgia, after which the Grand Marshal made a few appropriate remarks and introduced the Orator of the Day, Mr. Charles Ruehl. The speech delivered by Mr. Ruehl was very eloquent, and gave a brief but correct history of the life and times of Schiller. After speaking of the youth of the poet, the trials and hardships which were undergone by him, and the final glorious results of his genius and works, the orator proceeded to draw a contrast between the state of Germany at that time and the condition of the United States now. Mr. Ruehl was very happy in his remarks, and placed his subject in a true light before his audience. Previous to the oration a song, composed by Schiller, called "An die Freude," was sung by the several associations. When Mr. Ruehl concluded, a song composed for the occasion, by Dr. Wedekind, was sung by the whole assemblage. This song consisted of twelve verses, and was greatly applauded. The hall was now cleared, and the ball commenced. Here fun and jollity reigned supreme, and until a late, or rather, early hour in the morning, the large crowd quietly dispersed, well pleased with the festivities. A pleasing incident occurred at the corner of Washington and Dupont streets. Before the procession had formed, the "German sharp-shooters" formed in front of Doctor Precht's house and received the flag of Wurtemberg from the hands of the Consul, in military style. This scene was witnessed by many, and was particularly beautiful and touching. Last evening the performances were continued, and a grand ball which was kept up until daylight, closed the exercises. Altogether, the affair was grand, and reflects great credit on the German population of our city, and the San Francisco Verein particularly, under whose auspices the festive was produced.
